AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: THIRTY (30) MONTHS

This term consists of 24 months on each of Counts 1 and 2, to be served concurrently, and 6 months under 18 U.S.C. § 3147, to be served consecutively to the sentence imposed in Counts 1 and 2.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1 and 2 of the 9-Count Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
3. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name or names without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer; and
4. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

USA vs. Troy StroudDocket No.: CR08-629-SVW

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(d)(5), the determination of restitution is deferred to a date selected by the Court. An Amended judgement will be entered after such determination.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $62,000 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25.00 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments shall be made during the period of supervised release, as determined by the U.S. Probation Office based on defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the his ability to pay restitution. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

All remaining counts are dismissed.

Recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

1. Defendant, if eligible, shall be allowed to participate in a drug/alcohol treatment program; and
2. Defendant be designated to a facility in the Southern California area.

Court's Reasonings:

A 30-month prison sentence is necessary to appropriately reflect the seriousness of defendant's involvement in this conspiracy.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
